Category: Conservation of a Heritage Place

Category: New Designs in a Heritage Context

Category: Excellence in Heritage Skills

Project: Roswell Retreat
422 Raglan Street

This project provides a great example of a well designed addition providing a comfortable modern home without compromising the original cottage and its appearance in the heritage streetscape. The innovation is in the details and materials of the new addition. Good use of light and space create a comfortable and enjoyable home with good connection to the outdoors.
