Phil Roberts-Author

Category: Communicating, Promoting and Celebrating Heritage

Project: Avenue of Memories book

This book tells the story of Ballarat's Avenue of Honour and Arch of Victory from 1917 to 2017. The research for and production of the Arch of Memories book represents a comprehensive documentation and commemoration of a century of community based work by the Avenue of Honour Committee. The Committee has protected, preserved and promoting the great vision of those women who sought to generate an internationally significant memorial to those Ballarat registered service men and women who served in the First World War.
