Project: Ariel Songs

Composed especially for the 2019 Ballarat Begonia Festival, Ariel Songs premiered at the Begonia Ball Gala re-opening of Ballarat Civic Hall, promoting and celebrating the famous statue of Shakespeare by Andor Meszaros, which stands at the entrance to the building on Mair Street. The performance of Ariel Songs at the Ballarat Botanical Gardens shows the gardens in a new light, generates opportunities for engaging the community with one of the city's iconic heritage sites and demonstrates the creative potential of so much of what the city has to offer.
