Project: Many Roads: Chinese on the Goldfields

In the 1850s, tens of thousands of Chinese people flocked to regional Victoria chasing the lure of gold. This online documentary film and digital exhibition brings together the collections of eighteen Victorian cultural organisations, both metropolitan and regional, to tell the story of the Chinese on the goldfields of Victoria. Many Roads: Chinese on the Goldfields is a beautifully crafted documentary which is in turn cleverly supported by a wealth of additional images and stories found on the Culture Victoria website.
